329 OXFORD SQUARE

Believe it or not, there are as many varied occasions for special eyeglasses as there are for any other part of your attire. Just because you have to wear glasses to see, does not mean they can't be as attractive as your shoes, jewelry, ties or shirts. . . . Get Out of the Rut! . . . Glasses sit in the middle of your face and are the first item seen when you're looked at.

While every other piece of clothing has made revolutionary changes, eyewear has just started to be thought of as wearing apparel. Oxford's selection of styles is tremendous. . . . Start thinking of glasses as not just functional but as an integral part of your wardrobe scene.

Eyes are the most interesting part of your face. They are sensuous, sultry, and tell all secrets. . . . Be kind to your eyes. . . . Dress them with elegance and proper style. Before you go for that face lift or hair piece, try on a new look in glasses. . . . See yourself in clear focus.
